Bolling's 'America' Broadcasts Live From Baileyton

SUN PHOTO BY NELSON MORAIS

Political and financial commentator, author and media personality Eric Bolling, right, stops at Davy Crockett TA Travel Center in Baileyton Tuesday to broadcast his new, live online show "America" on Conservative Review Television, crtvm.com. Segments of the show included a talk with U.S. Rep. Diane Black, R-6th, of Gallatin, left, a Tennessee gubernatorial candidate and discussions with trucking industry professionals.

Overall Will Challenge Hawk For State Rep

BY MICHAEL S. RENEAU
 EDITOR

Though neither candidate is contested in August's state primaries, Greene County voters will choose between two familiar faces when they vote for state representative in November.

In the 5th District, current State Rep. David Hawk, a Republican, is being challenged by Democrat Park Overall.

The Greene County native in recent years has been a vocal activist after an acting career in Hollywood. She mounted an unsuccessful run for U.S. Senate in 2012, coming in third in a field of Democratic candidates in those primaries.

Hawk, meanwhile, has served the 5th District in the House since 2002.

'MOST SHOCKED PERSON IN GREENE COUNTY'

Overall, who has never been shy about voicing her positions — especially at public meetings — said she's primarily running against Hawk to give liberal 5th District voters an option in November.

Meet The Candidates: Greeneville 2nd Ward Alderman

BY EUGENIA ESTES
 STAFF WRITER

People living in the town's 2nd Ward have a choice to make when they cast their ballots in the Aug. 2 Greeneville municipal election.

Incumbents Jeff Taylor and Sarah Webster are joined in bids for the Board of Mayor and Aldermen by newcomer Peter Higgins.

Early voting begins on Friday and continues through July 28 at the Election Commission office on 218 N. Main St. Times are Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

and 8:30 a.m. to noon on Saturdays.

The three candidates recently responded to questions from The Greeneville Sun about their candidacies. The following provides biographical information about each candidate and their responses to a series of questions.
